

April 28, 2015

Dear Pennsylvania Young Readers,

How's it going? Thank you so much for voting Dragons Love Tacos the reader's choice for 2014-2015! Daniel and I are extremely proud (we even told our moms about it). Reading is so important. It helps you get smarter and become a better writer. The library is a magical place and you are all very lucky to have such passionate people helping you find books you'll love. Be sure to give your school librarian a hug for me the next time you see them. The most amazing thing about writing books is connecting with readers I've never even met. If I can inspire even just one of you to keep reading, or start writing or throw an epic taco party, it will give me the happy screams. Thanks again for honoring us with this award. It really does mean a lot to us. Have fun out there.

Booyah,
Adam Rubin